LOCAL GATHERINGS.

—The J. O. U. A. M. give a social dance in their hall over the post office Friday evening. All are invited.

—A patent has been granted to Henry Fairbanks, assignor to E. & T. Fairbanks & Co., for a weight register.

—The public installation and reception to the officers of the Golden Cross was held in Pythian Hall last Friday evening.

—A rain storm one day last week almost spoiled the sleighing, but nearly a foot of snow came Friday and there is now excellent sleighing.

—At the solicitation of many customers, Mrs. F. O. Clark will continue the sale of bread and doughnuts through the week, with brown bread and beans every Saturday, and will fill orders for rolls at one day's notice.

—In the report of gifts to Sunset Home in November that of tickets to the Y. M. C. A. lecture course was inadvertently omitted. They were sent by C. W. Ruiter, who, with the committee for which he acted, are cordially thanked.

—Green Mountain Lodge No. 49, N. E. O. P., installed their new officers on Saturday night, Jan. 7. The trustees' report showed the lodge to be in a very flourishing condition financially and the membership Jan. 1, was 438, which is nearly one-half the entire state membership.

—Yesterday morning was the coldest of the winter, the mercury dropping to 36 below zero in one part of the town, while in this village it ranged from 25 to 30 below. The mercury kept below zero all day and riding was far from pleasant at any time.

—The petitions for the two contestants for postmaster were handed in to Congressman Grout last Saturday night. Gen. Grout has notified the parties interested that the letters of instruction limited signatures to republicans and tax-paying women.

—Harry Perrigo, who was placed in jail last week for using mileages that belonged to D. C. Stiles and not paying for them, was released Saturday on probation. The young man now has a chance to start right and all hope that he will as he is naturally a bright fellow.

—C. H. Goss has just completed the steam heating at the Union House. He also has two other jobs on hand; one, to heat with hot water the cashier's house at Whitefield, N. H., the other to plumb the house of Manassah Perkins, superintendent of the Waumbek Hotel, Jefferson, N. H.

—Lounge Brothers & Smythe take a liberal space to tell the readers of the CALEDONIAN all about their annual linen sale. The sale commences Friday, Jan. 13, and continues two weeks. In their long list of articles will be found many bargains that will appeal to every housekeeper.

—"The Maine Central," the illustrated monthly devoted to the interests of that railroad, will have an illustrated write-up of St. Johnsbury in its next issue. W. A. Kimball of Portland, the manager of the advertising department, has been here several times lately and the next number of the magazine will be awaited with interest.

—Last Friday evening an unknown lady, while talking with a friend in front of the Avenue House, fell into the hole between the hotel and D. C. Stiles' store, but escaped without serious injuries. There are several other holes around the Avenue House to permit light to get into the basement. These are quite dangerous to pedestrians and should be nailed in.

—Our local doctors, who became interested in hypnotism through the efforts of Prof. H. L. Flint, have been studying into the subject and several have become quite proficient. Private seances are held almost every week and many interesting experiments are being tried, such as putting the subjects to sleep, and making them go through all sorts of antics. They have succeeded so well that a public exhibition may be given in the near future.

—In the case of Peter Frederick v. Lorenzo Salloway a verdict was rendered for the plaintiff to recover $50 and costs.

—The case of J. G. Bussing v. G. C. Cary for assault and battery was next taken up and a verdict rendered for the plaintiff to recover $300.

—The next case was Minnie Hamilton v. Abner Bonnett. Trover for value of trunk and contents which plaintiff claims was unjustly held by defendant. A verdict was given for the plaintiff to recover $75.

—The fourth case was Gilman Bros. v. Town of Barnet. Action was brought for damages to team, which ran off the road. The plaintiff claims that the town was liable for not having a guard rail at the place where accident occurred. At 22 hours deliberation the jury reported a disagreement and were discharged without a verdict.

—The docket went to pieces Tuesday and court will take a final adjournment today. A complete list of cases disposed of will be given next week.

A NEW HOSPITAL.

St. Johnsbury's Latest Institution soon to be Opened.

The CALEDONIAN takes pleasure in presenting to its readers a picture of the new hospital soon to be opened in St. Johnsbury. Residents of the town and former townspeople will easily recognize it as the Gov. Erastus Fairbanks place in Fairbanks village, so long occupied by the late C. M. Stone and his family. The scheme to use this slightly residence as a hospital originated with the St. Johnsbury physicians and at an informal meeting last week a committee of interested citizens were chosen to take steps to incorporate the hospital, choose a name, and draw up a set of rules and by-laws. Friends of the institution have easily been interested in the scheme and promises to furnish at least eight rooms have been received from individuals, churches and secret societies. The number will undoubtedly be increased as soon as the building is ready for use, as all are much interested in the success of the institution.

The house chosen for this purpose is one of the best built residences in town, is lit by gas and heated throughout by steam and before the hospital is opened it will be put in thorough condition for use.

The CALEDONIAN congratulates the doctors on securing on such favorable terms a hospital and believes that it will at once become one of the leading institutions of our town.

A Grout Demonstration.

At the conclusion of the banquet of the Dairymen's Association, last Wednesday evening, Gov. E. C. Smith met a number of the supporters of Gen. W. W. Grout in the Avenue House Hall, and listened to their appeals for the appointment of Gen. Grout as successor to the late Senator Morrill. About a hundred representative men of Orleans, Caledonia and Orange counties were present and the following made short speeches: Judge Chamberlain, Jay; Hon. J. H. Holton, Charleston; Mr. Clark, Glover; George Simpson, Craftsbury; A. D. Nelson, Derby; W. L. Jacobs, Barton; L. D. Miles, Newport; John Lewis, Troy; Mr. Baldwin, Wells River; Mr. Hale, Newbury; Mr. Wilkie, Orange county; Dr. T. R. Stiles, St. Johnsbury; Mr. Webster, Lyndonville. The governor made a few remarks, but would in no way commit himself. At the conclusion of the speeches each one present was introduced to the governor.

A Pretty Home Wedding.

On Wednesday noon, January the fourth, at the residence of L. D. Hazen, 119 Main street, occurred the marriage of his daughter, Margaret E., to Welcome W. Bradley of Minneapolis, a former resident of this village. The wedding was a quiet home affair, simple in every detail. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William Hazen, D. D., of Northfield, a cousin of the bride. Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served in the dining room, after which the bridal pair left on the afternoon train north for Montreal and from there to Minneapolis their future home. The bride received many choice gifts from her friends. The groom is a graduate of St. Johnsbury Academy in the class of 1882 and is very pleasantly remembered by our townspeople. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Hazen and one of our most popular young ladies. Mr. and Mrs. Bradley have taken to their western home hearty congratulations and best wishes from a wide circle of friends.

The meeting organized by the selection of N. P. Bowman as president and there were about 50 voters present when the business was taken up after dinner. The article relating to raising money to pay taxes, etc., was disposed of by the passage of a resolution to consider the article at an adjourned meeting on Saturday, July 1. It was voted to use the Australian ballot at the next annual meeting and the specific appropriations as recommended in the report of the trustees were adopted. The annual debate over the permanent improvements on Eastern avenue resulted in the adoption of a resolution authorizing the trustees to expend not over $5000 in the purchase of a steam crushing plant and roller, the same to be used in the macadamizing of our streets. The article relating to the maintenance of a lock-up was disposed of by the adoption of the following resolution introduced by Henry C. Bates:

Resolved, That the village trustees be hereby authorized to make such arrangements as they deem proper for the use of the county jail as a village lock up.
